DAY 1: Welcome to my blog! It's in English!!

POSTED ON APRIL 6TH BY AMANDA

Hello! I'm a Brazilian student. I'm in Boston, Massachusetts in the United States! I'm here to learn English.

The Wilsons are my American family. Peter (the husband) and Helen (the wife) have three children: Matt, 16, Nick, 19, and Rosie, 23. Rosie's married. They're very friendly, but they speak very fast! It's difficult to understand them.

DAY 3: My first day at school!

POSTED ON APRIL 8TH BY AMANDA

Today is my first English class at Boston University. It's a big school in a fun part of the city. It's near a lot of shops, cafés, and theaters. It's great!

My class is very international! The students are from Mexico, Japan, Turkey, Argentina, Korea, and China. Our teacher's name is Charlotte. She's very young and she's very nice. I really like her. She's a good teacher.

DAY 10: I love Boston!!

POSTED ON APRIL 15TH BY AMANDA

Hello again! It's great here. I love Boston! It's really interesting. I like shopping, but it's very expensive. I go to the parks. They are really beautiful. And I go to museums and galleries. The Museum of Fine Arts is free for college students! I go by bus or by subway – it's very easy.

The weather's OK, cold but sunny. The food is OK, too! And the coffee is great! There are a lot of coffee shops in Boston! Check out my photos!

His village doesn't have a school, but Babur is lucky because he goes to a private school in the next village. His school costs 1,000 rupees, $17 a year. This is too expensive for many children in Babur's village, but they want to learn, so Babur teaches them everything that he learns. More and more children want to learn, so Babur's friends help him teach. The classes are in bamboo huts, but sometimes they sit outdoors. The school is free and now has a name, the Anand Shiksha Niketan School, and Babur is the head teacher.

Jamie Cullum

Songwriter and jazz pianist Jamie Cullum lives in London with his wife Sophie Dahl, the model and cookbook writer. He enjoys going to markets, French movies, and playing cards on weekends.

JAMIE SAYS, "In my work I travel a lot and I stay in different hotels, so my perfect weekend is at home with my family and friends. I live in an apartment in northwest London next to my brother, Ben, and on weekends I like being with him and my wife, Sophie. On Friday nights, we often go to a club – we all love dancing.

On Saturdays, we get up late and I make breakfast; that's important to me. Then I sit at my piano – it's in my kitchen – and I play for a couple of hours. I don't write songs, I just play. My cat, Luna, listens. Sometimes in the afternoon we go shopping in Portobello Market. I love old things. I have black leather cowboy boots from there. Also, I look for old postcards – I like reading about people from the past. In the evening, we often watch a French or Japanese movie – I enjoy foreign movies.

After that I like playing cards with friends, sometimes until early Sunday morning. We sleep late on Sundays, but then I like cooking Sunday dinner, usually roast chicken. I really enjoy cooking. In the evening I call my parents and my nan [grandma] – they like hearing about my week."

Bobbi Brown

Bobbi Brown is the founder and CEO of Bobbi Brown cosmetics. She lives with her family in a quiet suburb in New Jersey. She enjoys barbecuing, doing yoga, and listening to hip-hop on weekends.

BOBBI SAYS, "My perfect weekend starts at home with my husband, Steven Plofker, and my youngest son. Sometimes my older sons, who are in college, are there, too. And we usually have a couple of exchange students, always boys. I'm often tired after a week working in the city, so I just like to relax at home on Friday nights. After work I put on a big sweater and a pair of sneakers. Then we cook outside in the backyard.

On Saturdays, I usually wake up at about 7:00 a.m. I make a macchiato [a strong cup of coffee], and then I read the news. At 7:30, I often do yoga or go to an exercise class at the gym. I like listening to hip-hop music while I exercise – it makes me feel happy. After that, I go shopping at a farmers' market in the summer or at a store in the winter. When I get home, the boys are usually just getting up! I talk to them for a while, and then I walk my dogs. In the afternoon, I sometimes go out to lunch or to a museum. We usually cook dinner at home. I like cooking healthy food.

On Sundays, I often go for a walk with a friend while my husband plays golf. I love my weekends at home. After I relax all weekend, I'm ready for another busy week of work and travel."

INSIDE THE

The White House, 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, DC, is the most famous address in America. It is where the United States president works, and lives. The president's family has children's birthday parties, holiday dinners, and weddings in this world-famous building.

THE BUILDING

First built in 1800, the White House is where the president of the United States governs a country of 50 states and 317 million people.

The presidential family lives on the second and third floors. There are 16 bedrooms, a living room, a kitchen, and a dining room. Special guests stay in the Queen's Bedroom or the Lincoln Bedroom.

In the West Wing are the staff offices. The president's own office, the Oval Office, is also there. It has three large windows behind the president's desk, and there is a fireplace at the other end.

Each new president chooses new curtains, new furniture, and a special new carpet. There are pictures of old presidents on the wall, and there is the famous desk, a gift from the British Queen Victoria in 1880.

WHITE HOUSE

THE WHITE HOUSE DAY BY DAY

The White House is open to visitors. It is free. About 6,000 people a day visit. The president meets special guests in the East Room and talks to journalists in the Press Room.

About 150 people work for the president in the West Wing and for the presidential family in the East Wing. Another 100 people take care of the building day and night.

There are 132 rooms, 35 bathrooms, and five kitchens, all on six floors. There are three elevators. The State Dining Room is big enough for 140 guests.

Outside, gardeners grow fruit and vegetables. There is also a tennis court, a jogging track, and a swimming pool. Inside there is a movie theater, a billiard room, a bowling alley, and a library. As former President Reagan said,

A PASSION FOR SUCCESS

Nicola Benedetti is a world-famous violinist. She was the BBC Young Musician of the Year in 2004 when she was 16. She lives in London, near her sister, Stephanie, who is also a violinist. Their father, Gio Benedetti, is a businessman. He lives with his wife, Francesca, in Scotland.

Nicola Benedetti

A PASSION FOR

Music

“When I was young, music wasn’t very important in our house. Then, when I was four, I started playing the violin. In my first lesson, I was so happy, I couldn’t stop crying.

My dad, Gio, was always busy. He was very hardworking. His parents were poor, so he wanted to give me and my sister everything. I like hard work too, and I know what I want – if someone says to me ‘You can’t do that’, I think ‘Oh yes I can!’ That’s very like my dad.

But my dad’s a businessman, and I’m an artist. Money is very important to him, but for me, success isn’t the same as earning lots of money. He likes the music I play, but he doesn’t like classical music very much. I teach him about music, and he tells me about business.

My sister and I are very close. We sometimes play together – not professionally, but at family occasions like weddings.

I live for my work. I never want to stop. Music is my life. ”

Gio Benedetti

A PASSION FOR

Business

“I was born in a small village near Lucca in Italy. We were poor but happy. When I was ten, I came to Scotland to live with my uncle. It was very difficult.

When I was 16, there was a beautiful car – a Jaguar – in the shops but I couldn’t afford it. It was too expensive. So I started a business to make money – a dry-cleaning business. Soon there were 15 shops. By the time I was 19, I could afford the Jaguar. That was a very good day!

Nicola was always independent, like me. She could play the violin when she was four. Now she plays concerts all over the world. I am so proud of her. She practices for seven hours a day. Scotland is so proud of her. Everybody knows her now.

I can’t play any musical instruments. I like country and western music, but not classical. Nicola knows what she wants. She has a passion to succeed, like me, and she works very hard to get it. When she plays the violin, she’s passionate – that’s the Italian in her. When I see her play, I often cry. I can’t help it. I’m very sentimental. ” flight and the first person on the moon. In the 20th century, progress in aviation was phenomenal.

On July 25, 1909, a Frenchman, Louis Blériot, became the first person to complete the first long flight when he flew from Calais, in the north of France, to Dover, in the south of England. Blériot's flight amazed all of Europe. People thought that such a flight was impossible.

Louis Blériot

THE FLIGHT

The flight wasn't easy. Mr Blériot, a 37-year-old engineer, couldn't swim, so he didn't want to come down in the English Channel. He couldn't walk very well because of an injury to his leg, and he didn't have a compass.

On the morning of the 25th, he took off at 4:30 from a field at the edge of a cliff. It took 37 minutes to complete the 22-mile trip. The plane flew at 40 miles per hour at an altitude of 250 feet. Everything went well until he flew into fog. "I continued flying for ten minutes, but I couldn't see the land, only the sky and the sea. It was the most dangerous part of the flight. I wasn't worried about the machine. It flew beautifully. Finally, I saw the land," he told reporters.

LANDING IN ENGLAND

When he got to Dover, he saw a French journalist waving a flag. He cut the engine at 60 feet and crashed into a field. The news quickly went around the world, and Mr Blériot's flight was celebrated in London and Paris. He won a prize of £1,000 (about $1700).

"The crossing was the start of modern aviation," said Louis Blériot, the grandson of the pioneer.

On July 16, 1969, at 9:30 in the morning, Apollo 11 lifted off from the Kennedy Space Center in Florida. There were three astronauts – Neil Armstrong, Buzz Aldrin, and Michael Collins. The enormous rocket took three days to complete the 250,000 miles to the moon, traveling at six miles per second (21,600 miles an hour). Then it circled the moon 30 times, giving time to prepare for the landing.

Neil Armstrong Michael Collins Buzz Aldrin

THE LUNAR LANDING

The lunar module landed on a part of the moon called the Sea of Tranquility at 8:17 in the evening on July 20.

It was time for the astronauts to rest, but they were too excited to sleep. At 3:00 in the morning on July 21, Neil Armstrong became the first person to walk on the moon. Six hundred million people all over the world watched on TV. As Armstrong took his first steps, he said the famous words, "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind."

WALKING ON THE MOON

Armstrong and Aldrin spent two and a half hours walking on the moon. They collected samples and set up scientific equipment. Finally, they put up a US flag. After 22 hours on the moon, the lunar module lifted off and flew up to join the rocket that took them back to Earth. They left an inscription:

HERE MEN FROM THE PLANET EARTH FIRST SET FOOT UPON THE MOON, JULY 1969. WE CAME IN PEACE FOR ALL MANKIND.

This flight was the beginning of people's exploration of space.

The History of the Sandwich

1st Century BC

A famous leader, Hillel the Elder, made the first recorded sandwich. He mixed some nuts, apples, and spices, and put it between two matzohs (pieces of flat bread).

6th – 16th Century

People used bread as plates. They put meat and vegetables onto some bread and ate with their fingers. These were the first open sandwiches, and they called them "trenchers."

18th Century

No one is sure when the word "sandwich" first appeared. But many people think this is how the sandwich got its name: An Englishman, John Montague (1718–1792), the Fourth Earl of *Sandwich, liked to eat and play cards at London's Beef Steak Club. Sometimes he stayed at the card table for 24 hours. He was hungry, but he didn't want to stop playing, so the chefs from the club put some beef between two pieces of bread, and he ate while he played. This new meal became very popular with other men in the club, and they called it the "sandwich" after the Earl.

* Sandwich is a town in the South of England.

19th Century

An American writer, Eliza Leslie, introduced sandwiches to America. In 1837, she wrote a cookbook and in it she had a recipe for sandwiches: "Cut some thin slices of bread and meat. Butter the bread and put the meat between two slices with some mustard. Eat for lunch or supper." Americans loved them.

20th – 21st Century

Sandwiches became very popular. They were easy to make and they were a wonderful, cheap, portable meal for workers and school children.

HIGH-SPEED TOKYO

Tokyo has a population of more than 35 million people. It is the largest city in the world. It is also one of the most exciting. Everything moves fast here. It has one of the biggest and busiest railroad systems in the world. Every day, 40 million commuters use it to get to and from work. People make the highest salaries, and they spend the most money. They wear the latest fashions and have the most up-to-date phones. It is one of the most expensive cities in the world.

Old and new

Tokyo was originally a small fishing village called Edo. The name changed in 1868 when the Emperor moved there.

The architecture is very modern. There are not many old buildings because of the 1923 earthquake and the Second World War. But traditional Japan is always nearby, with many Shinto shrines and public baths around the city.

Visiting Tokyo

Tokyo is on the east coast of Japan. The summers are hot and humid. The most beautiful time of year is spring, when the famous cherry blossoms are on the trees.

The city is huge, but it is one of the safest cities in the world.

MUMBAI

A CITY OF EXTREMES

Mumbai is one of India's largest cities, with a population of 19.7 million. It is also India's most important commercial center. Mumbai was part of the British Empire until independence in 1947. It was called Bombay until 1995, when it was renamed Mumbai.

Rich and poor

Mumbai is both old and modern, rich and poor. The streets are full of people doing business, selling snacks and clothes, or just living there. Money is everywhere in modern Mumbai. India's most important businesses and banks have their headquarters there. The Bollywood film industry produces more films than Hollywood in Los Angeles. Modern skyscrapers and new shopping malls are right next to slums. About sixty percent of the population live with no running water, no electricity, and no sanitation.

Visiting Mumbai

Mumbai is on the west coast. The wet season is from June to September. Between November and February it is a little cooler and dryer. The city is best at sunrise and sunset, when the color of the stone buildings changes from gold to orange and pink. The cheapest and easiest transportation is by bus. Trains can be crowded and dangerous. Because of its poverty, Mumbai can be a difficult place to live, but the experience is unique.

MULTICULTURAL MEXICO CITY

Mexico City has a population of 20.5 million. It is the largest city in both North and South America. The Aztecs called it Tenochtitlán, and it was already an important city when the Spanish invaded in 1521. The country became independent in 1821.

Indigenous and European

Mexico City offers a variety of experiences. In the Zócalo, the main square, you can see the National Palace and other historic buildings, and a modern skyscraper. The city has a lot of museums and theaters. European squares and colonial houses sit next to busy markets selling Mexican food and indigenous handicrafts. It is the richest city in Latin America. There are elegant shops selling high-end goods, expensive restaurants, and really cool cafés. There is also a lot of poverty.

Visiting Mexico City

Mexico City is in a valley in the south central area of the country. It is surrounded by mountains. The rainy season is from June to October. The warmest months are April and May. It has the largest and cheapest subway system in Latin America. Traffic moves so slowly that it is often faster to walk. The air quality is not good, and visitors need to be careful, but the city offers a rich cultural mix.

Project

Find out who is on board the ISS right now. Choose one of the astronauts and do some research. Try to answer the questions from exercise 7.

Tell the rest of the class.

LIVING

A science laboratory 240 miles from Earth? A preparation for a flight to Mars? The International Space Station, or ISS, is both of these.

At this very moment, the ISS is orbiting Earth at a distance of 240 miles (360 kilometers). It is flying at 17,000 m/hr (28,000 km/hr). It goes around Earth 16 times a day. It took more than $100 billion and 14 years to develop. It is the most expensive thing ever built.

The station

The first part of the station went into space in 1998. Astronauts started to live on it in November 2000. There are usually three astronauts on board, and they stay for about six months at a time. Over the years there have been over 200 visitors from 15 different countries. Supply ships arrive about eight times a year.

Goals

Space agencies in the United States, Russia, Japan, Canada, and Europe are working together. They are using the zero gravity of space to do experiments in biology, physics, and astronomy. They are learning about living in space over a long time and the effects of this on the human body. The astronauts are growing plants to make oxygen. They are studying Earth's weather and geography. And they are looking at planets and stars to understand the origin of the universe.

IN SPACE

An astronaut's day

Astronauts work for ten hours a day during the week and five hours on Saturday. The rest of the time they are free.

They wake up at 6:00 and have breakfast. There is a meeting, and they make plans for the day. They have an hour for lunch, then work until dinner at 7:00. Lights out is at 9:30. They exercise for two hours every day, because weightlessness affects the body's muscles and bones.

Food

There isn't a real kitchen, but there is a kitchen table. All food comes in cans or envelopes. There is fresh fruit only when a supply ship comes.

Astronauts eat with a spoon. It is a good idea to have food with a sauce so that it stays on the spoon and doesn't float away! They like spicy food because in space the sense of taste isn't very strong.

Personal lives

They have their own sleeping compartment. They sleep in bags attached to the wall. Because there is no up or down in space, they sleep "standing up." They have their own clothes and books and laptops. The temperature is always 72°F, so astronauts usually wear shorts and a T-shirt.

There isn't a shower, but there are two toilets. In their free time they send emails home, read, and play games. But what they like to do most is look out of the windows at Earth below.

Future of the ISS

The ISS is the first of many space stations. There isn't a date yet for a manned trip to Mars, but space agencies are already talking about it. One thing is sure – at some time in the 21st century it will definitely happen.

Student B

You are Zoë.
Answer the journalist’s questions.

 What ... your name?

 Why ... ?

 How old ... ?

She wakes up early, puts on her running shoes, and runs all day. Yes, all day. She runs in hot weather and through rain storms. She runs up and down mountains. For Zoë Romano, this is a typical day.

Zoë’s adventures

Zoë Romano is a long-distance runner. In 2006, when she was 19, Zoë ran her first half marathon (13.1 miles). Five years later, she ran a marathon (26.2 miles) almost every day for four months! She ran across the US, from coast to coast – a distance of 2,800 miles. Along the way, many people helped Zoë. Some people ran with her for a few miles. Other people gave her food. Some people even invited her to stay in their homes.

DREAM

IT, THEN DO IT

Soon after that amazing challenge, Zoë was ready for another adventure. She wanted to do something even more difficult than her cross-America run. So in the summer of 2013, Zoë went to France. She ran the same course that the world's top cyclists ride in the Tour de France. For cyclists, the Tour de France is the highest level of competition. For a runner, it's almost impossible. But Zoë did it, and she was the first person to run the 2,115 mile course. She finished in 64 days. So she ran about 30 miles each day, and she only rested for a few days in between. In the last 23 hours, she ran 90 miles without a break. Not one break!

Why does she do it?

Zoë runs long distances because she loves adventure. She also runs to raise money for an organization called World Pediatric Project. This organization helps to take care of sick children around the world. Zoë's fans donated almost $200,000 to help these children.

These days, Zoë writes magazine articles. She is also writing a book about her adventures. She's traveling around and speaking to groups of people. Zoë is teaching people that they too can dream big and do great things. She likes to say, "Dream it, then do it." Zoë is already dreaming about her next adventure. She isn't sure what she's going to do, but she's sure that it's going to be exciting!

The world's biggest

Some facts

The festival covers 1,000 acres of farmland in southwest England. It takes place in June and lasts four days.

About 700 acts play on over 80 stages. There is nonstop music from 9 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock the next morning.

1,500 people attended the first festival in September 1970. They paid £1 (about $1.70) a ticket. Last year 190,000 people attended. They paid £205 (about $340) for a ticket.

Hundreds of famous names have performed at Glastonbury: singers such as Paul McCartney, Bruce Springsteen, Robbie Williams, Jay Z, Amy Winehouse, and Beyoncé, and bands such as REM, Radiohead, Coldplay, Arctic Monkeys, and The Rolling Stones.

In 2009, news of a famous singer's death hit in the middle of the festival. Immediately T-shirts with the slogan "I was at Glastonbury when he died" were on sale.

The festival is famous for its rain! In 1997, 1998, and 2005 it rained every day, and the festival-goers danced in the mud.

digi Glastonbury!

open-air music festival

Some experiences

Marina M, Manchester "My first Glastonbury was 2005. The year of rain and MUD! We took off our shoes and danced in it up to our knees! I loved it! I've now been six times! It's always a lot of fun, even though you don't sleep much! This year's festival was fantastic – I didn't want to go home. A definite highlight for me was an Icelandic band called Sigur Ros. I'd never heard of them, but I loved their music. And there were a lot more toilets this year! Much better!"

Dave Chow, Hong Kong "Well, I don't know what to say – this was my first time, and it was the most amazing experience! I'm now sitting at work thinking about the best four days of my life. We didn't see any bad bands, and the DJs rocked all night. We saw the sun rise at 5:15 on Sunday morning – an amazing experience. Only one complaint – there were so many cell phones. Why? I thought Glasto was about getting away from it all."

Len Ferris, London "I've taken my kids to Glastonbury twice. It really is an education for kids. The atmosphere is amazing. I think this is because of the mix of people of all ages. It's great to see them – from babies, toddlers, and teenagers, to people my parents' age and older. Everyone gets along so well. On Saturday night we watched Radiohead with my 11-year-old son, and the crowd moved back so he could see better. We loved everything."

Izzi, Christchurch, New Zealand "This was my first year at Glastonbury. I traveled 10,000 miles to be there. I've been to other festivals in Australia and Europe. I went to the Sonar Festival in Barcelona two years ago – it was great, but I've always wanted to come to Glastonbury. It was amazing. Radiohead was the best thing I've ever seen at a festival, and I'm going to come next year if I can. Long live Glastonbury!!"

- 2 Who has been only once?

Hi Evan,

Thanks for last weekend. It was really great. The meal was fantastic – didn't know you could cook! Just kidding ;-) Email me the recipe. I'd like to make shepherd's pie for my friends here – they're always starving!

The trip home was sooooooooooooo long and boring – the bus stopped at a highway service station where I had a disgusting turkey and cheese sandwich and a cold coffee. Yuck!

I slept for the rest of the trip – not surprising really – we did dance ALL night! House Rules was a great club, but going to bed at 4 and getting up at 8 to go back to Washington, DC was awful! You're a real friend for getting up early to take me to the bus station!

Everyone here is worried about exams. They start next week, like yours. It was good to forget about them for the weekend! I miss you a lot. Come and visit me soon – the bus ride is cheap.

Can't wait to see you again. Email or text me.

THANK YOU

from: sarah.bates4@mail.us to: owenandowen@mail.us
date: Mon April 21

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Owen,

I'd like to thank you so much for hosting me last weekend. I had a really wonderful time, and I was so happy to finally meet you. The meal you made was delicious. Evan told me that his mother was an excellent cook – and he was right. I also enjoyed our walk – the woods near your house are beautiful.

The trip back was long, and I slept for most of the way. It was very nice of you to drive me to the station so early in the morning. I was very grateful!

It's good to be back at college. I have a lot of work right now before exams start. I know Evan has exams too, so we can't see each other until the end of June – we are just too busy!

I'd love to visit again during the summer vacation with Evan.

Thank you again for everything.

Best wishes,
Sarah

CD1 44 Dr. Susan Hall – The work–life balance

Of course, work is important for us all, it gives us money to live, it gives structure to our everyday lives. But, for a happy, balanced life, it's also important to "play" sometimes. It's important to find time to relax with friends and family. It's not good to think about work all the time. I know from my work as a doctor that it's sometimes difficult not to take your work problems home – but if you take your problems home you never relax, and it's difficult for your family, and bad for your health. Don't live to work, work to live! Life is more than work.

CD1 55 Describing your homeMy new apartment

My new apartment is near the center of town, so I often walk to work. It's not very big, but it's very comfortable! There's just one bedroom, a living room, and a pretty big kitchen with a table in the center. This is good because I love cooking, and I can invite my friends to dinner. The living room has one big window. It faces south, so it's always very sunny. I have two comfortable old armchairs, but I don't have a sofa because the room is pretty small.

There isn't a yard, but there's a small balcony outside my bedroom. I want to put a chair there, so I can sit in the sun on summer afternoons.

I love my new apartment for many reasons: the big kitchen, the sunny living room, but most of all I love it because it's my first home!

B = Businessman, F = Fisherman

- B Good morning. What beautiful tuna! How long did it take to catch them?
- F Oh, about two hours.
- B Only two hours! Amazing! Why didn't you fish for longer and catch more?
- F I didn't want to fish for longer. With this I have enough fish for my family.
- B But what do you do with the rest of your day? Aren't you bored?
- F I'm never bored. I get up late, play with my children, watch soccer, and take a nap. Sometimes in the evenings, I walk to the village to see my friends, play the guitar, and sing some songs.
- B Really? That's all you do? Look, I am a very successful businessman. I went to an excellent college and I studied business. I can help you. Fish for four hours every day and sell the extra fish you catch ...
- F But ...
- B ... Then, you can buy a bigger boat, catch more, and earn more money.
- F But ...
- B ... Then buy a second boat, a third, and so on, until you have a big fleet of fishing boats.
- F But ...
- B ... and you can export the fish, and leave this village, and move to the big city, and open a fishing business.
- F OK, OK, but how long will all this take?
- B Uh let me think uh, probably about 15 to 20 years.
- F 15 to 20 years! And then what, sir?
- B Why, that's the exciting part! You can sell your business and become very rich, a millionaire.
- F A millionaire? Really? But what do I do with all the money?

- B Well, let me think. Uh I know, you can stop work, and uh, move to a beautiful old fishing village where you can sleep late, play with your grandchildren, watch soccer, take a nap, and walk to the village in the evenings where you can play the guitar and sing with your friends all you want.

F Um – well ...

CD2 54 What's your favorite sandwich?Lin

I come from Vietnam. Our national sandwich is Bánh Mi. It's a baguette filled with meat and vegetables. My favorite kind of Bánh Mi is made with grilled chicken. Mmmm, delicious. Would you like to try one?

Larissa

I'm from Brazil, so for me it's the Bauru. It's named after the Brazilian city of Bauru, and it's really popular here in Brazil. It has melted cheese – usually mozzarella – and slices of roast beef and tomatoes. I love it!

Dylan

I live in Philadelphia, here in the US. Philadelphia is famous for the cheese steak sandwich. It's the best sandwich in the world! It's made with thin slices of steak with melted cheese and grilled onions on top. I love it!

Kumiko

Oh, the best sandwich in the world is definitely Yakisoba-pan. It's a hot dog bun filled with fried Japanese noodles. I usually have an egg and some mayonnaise on top. And it's delicious with a little salt and pepper – mm, I'd like one right now!

John

I was in Turkey by the sea, and a fisherman called to me, "Come, try a 'Balik Ekmek.'" I think this means "fish in bread." He gave me a sandwich – it was fresh grilled mackerel in a bread roll with raw onions. Amazing!

- 3 Paris has warmer winters than New York.
- 4 Paris is rainier than New York.
- 5 I think the buildings in Paris are more beautiful.
- 6 I think the parks in Paris are nicer.

CD3 5

Well, I like both New York and Paris. But they're very different cities. Take public transportation for example. The New York City Subway is cheaper than the Métro, but they're both easy to use. And the weather ... well, New York has colder winters than Paris. Paris is rainier than New York, but New York has bigger storms. What about the buildings? Well, ... the architecture in Paris is definitely more beautiful, but the buildings in New York are more modern. And living in the two cities? Well ... life is faster in New York. And the people? ... Mmm, people in New York work harder, and they make more money. In Paris, having a good time is more important.

CD3 8 Parisian in New York

I = Interviewer, C = Chantal

- I Hello Chantal!
C Hi!
I Now, you're French, but you live in New York. Is that right?
C Yes, that's right.
I And are you ... on your own here in New York?
C No, no! I'm here with my husband, André.
I Oh, I see. Do you work in New York?
C Yes, I do. I work in a bank. I really like my job.
I Oh that's good. And ... Where do you live in New York?
C Well, we're renting an apartment in Chelsea. It's probably the smallest apartment in the city! But we love the neighborhood.
I Yes, Chelsea's a fun neighborhood. So, what does your husband do?
C He has a cheese shop in Chelsea Market... he sells French cheese. I think it's the most delicious food at the market!
I Wow, that's great! And tell me, do you have a car here?
C No, I don't. The subway is the easiest way to get around New York.
I OK! Thank you very much! I hope you enjoy your time here!

CD3 10

A megacity is a city with more than ten million inhabitants.

The largest megacity is Tokyo. The next biggest is Delhi. Third is Mexico City. Fourth is New York, with about 20 million. Fifth is Shanghai. And last, the smallest is Mumbai, which has about 19.7 million.

Some time in 2008, for the first time in the history of the world, more people on Earth lived in cities than in rural areas.

CD3 11Makiko from Tokyo

The first thing to say about Tokyo is that it is very safe. Women can walk everywhere anytime day or night. Little children walk to school. You can leave something on the table in a restaurant while you go out for a minute and nobody will take it.

Tokyo is also very clean, and it is very easy to travel around. All the trains and buses run on time.

Personally, my favorite time of year is spring, when it's dry and the cherry blossoms are on the trees.

Tokyo is a very exciting city, because there are always new things to do, new places to go, new things to eat. It changes very quickly!

Vimahl from Mumbai

I have two strong impressions of Mumbai. First, it is a city that is so full of activity! It is busy, busy, busy all day long and all night long! It's a city that doesn't sleep much. The day begins early because it is so hot. It's a noisy place. There are cars going beep, beep, auto rickshaws by the thousands, fast trains rushing past, vendors shouting and trying to get you to buy their food, their drinks, their clothes. And people, people everywhere trying to get to work.

The second thing to say is that the people are very, very enthusiastic. Life isn't easy in Mumbai for a lot of people, but we really work hard and we really want to do our best. Every new day brings new possibilities! The future is exciting for us!

Lourdes from Mexico City

There are three things I like about living in Mexico City. First, the weather. It is warm and sunny most of the year. The second is the fresh fruit and vegetables – the markets are wonderful, the colors and smells are great! And the third is that I'm never bored because there is so much to see and do! We have museums, theaters, art exhibitions, parks, restaurants ... everything!

My favorite time of year in Mexico City is the end of December, from the 16th to the 31st. The city is full of lights, there are parties everywhere, and we eat and drink and give presents. Everyone's really happy! I love it!

CD3 12 Directions

Go along Spring Street, past the Fairview Hotel on your left, and over the bridge. At the traffic circle, turn left and go up Park Avenue. Go around the corner, through the woods, and down the hill. Then go under the railroad bridge and you are on Route 312 to Westfield.

CD3 13

- 1 Go along Spring Street, past the hotel, and over the Deep River. Go straight through the traffic circle, and it's in front of you on the hill to your left.
- 2 Go straight past the hotel and over the bridge until you get to a traffic circle. At the traffic circle, follow signs to the town center. Go past a gas station on your left, over a crosswalk, and at the traffic lights turn right. You're on ...
- 3 Go over the bridge, over the Deep River, and turn right toward the town center. Go straight, through the traffic lights. When you are in the square, it's on the left-hand side, next to the museum, across from the Town Hall.

CD3 40 Tense review

Lara I'm really excited about my trip to Hong Kong. I haven't traveled much outside Australia before. Just once, two years ago, I went on vacation to New Zealand with my family, but I've never been to Asia or the US. I often travel inside Australia. Last year I flew to Perth to visit my cousin, who lives there. It's a five-hour flight from Sydney, where I live. Australia's a big country! Also, I've been up to Cairns in the north three times. I learned to scuba dive there on the Great Barrier Reef.

We just finished packing, and now we're waiting for the taxi to take us to the airport. I've never flown in a 747 before. It's a long flight. It takes nine hours to get to Hong Kong. I'm going to watch movies all the way. I can't wait!

CD3 41 No, not yet!

- 1 A Have you checked your emails yet?
B Yes, I just checked them, but there wasn't one from you.
- 2 A Have you done the shopping?
B No, I haven't. I'm too tired to go out.

CD3 42 Song: Turin Brakes – *They can't buy the sunshineCD3 43*1 Elsa from New York

OK, I've been to Glastonbury twice now. My highlights this year were: the weather — it was sunny and beautiful every day, and the food van with the best sausages and fries ever. However, I was very disappointed with the music on Saturday night. DJs played House music all night. I love House, but this was awful. I got really bored, so I went back to my tent to hang out with friends!

2 Daniel Evans from Wales

Last Wednesday at 2:30 in the afternoon, I decided that I wanted to go to Glastonbury. I was lucky! I found a ticket online. I'm so glad I went. The music was really great. Sometimes it took a long time to get to the stages. The lines were long, but people were always friendly. In the busy "real world" it's difficult to have good conversations with people. At Glastonbury you can do this. It's a great festival, with a great crowd of people. What more could you want? 100,000 friendly people. I wish the rest of life was the same! Four days out of 365 is a good start!

CD3 44 Take and get

- 1 A It's really hot in here.
B Why don't you take off your sweater?
- 2 A Is your office near where you live?
B No, it takes a long time to get to work.
- 3 A What are your co-workers like?
B Great! We all get along really well.
- 4 A How often are there exhibitions in the museum?
B They take place regularly, every two months.
- 5 A Do you like learning English?
B It's OK, but sometimes I get really bored!
